

Gender Studies and Heinrich Böll Foundation in cooperation with Network of Mother Centres cordially invite you to the conference: “WOMEN’S FUTURE ON THE LABOUR MARKET”
Under the auspices of Ms. Kateřina Jacques.

Organizers: Gender Studies, Heinrich Böll Foundation Patron of the conference: Ms. Kateřina Jacques, a Green Party MP, Venue: New Town City Hall, Karlovo náměstí 23, Praha 2, Date: October 25, 2007

- TOPICS OF THE CONFERENCE:
- The European Union’s strategy on equal opportunities for women and men
  - Position of women on the Czech labour market
  - Information and communication technologies and women’s future on the labour market
  - The influence of female politicians on women’s position on the labour market

The conference will be followed by workshop on “Women and ICT” | Experts from the Czech Republic, Poland, Germany, Austria and European Institutions will participate | More information will be available on: <http://www.fit-for-gender.org/>. For program and application write to: alexandra.jachanova@genderstudies.cz | Babysitting available.

The conference is organised within the project “Fit for Gender Mainstreaming – Gender-sensitive Transcending of Borders between East and West” and in cooperation with the project “Family Friendly Company”. The conference will be interpreted from/into Czech, Polish and German

Sponsored by the European Union, GD Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities, Action Programme on Eon Equality between Women and Men. The organizer shall have all responsibility for the contents of this conference; the Commission shall not be responsible and liable for the future use of the information contained therein.

GENDER STUDIES

 HEINRICH
BÖLL
STIFTUNG